CORAM: J. N. PATEL,
AND
A. A. SAYED, JJ.

DATE : AUGUST 2, 2007.

P.C.:

. Heard. The petition can be disposed off at the stage of admission itself. The petitioner has approached this Court seeking direction to respondent No.1 to consider the case of the petitioner for giving him promotion in the post of junior clerk in the respondent No.2 institution w.e.f. 7-2-1997 and granting all consequential benefits w.e.f. 7-2-1997, and also for setting aside the promotions of respondent Nos. 5 & 6, made in the post of junior clerk w.e.f. 1-1-2004.

2. The learned counsel for respondent No.4 - institution has filed the affidavit of the Principal of Respondent No.4, in reply and has stated that as and when vacancy to the post of junior clerk would arise in future, petitioner would be considered on merits and in accordance with the rules. It is submitted that at present there are no vacancies in the post of junior clerk in the New Law College. We accept this statement in the affidavit, which is sworn by Narayan Madhukar Rajadhyaksha, the Principal of New Law College. This statement has come on record, pursuant to the order passed by this Court on 19th June 2007. Therefore, the grievances of the petitioner stands resolved. We therefore, dispose off the petition with a direction to the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner, of being considered as a junior clerk, as and when vacancy arise in future.
